

One of ways that we keep our clients abreast of new technology, new products, new design trends and concepts is through our periodic newsletter. This is not your traditional newsletter. Its focus is on how to help you as an architect, interior designer, builder or home automation. It's designed to be used as an education tool to help you grow your business.

Our "Cool Shades" publication is published in PDF format for viewing on your computer, iPad or smart phone. It's delivered quarterly to you by email.
